

Kingdom Hall to be dedicated

BRENTWOOD — A dedication for the new Kingdom Hall on Smith Road will begin at 2 p.m. today at the Antioch High School Auditorium, 700 West 18th St., Antioch.

An open house will be 10 a.m.-1 p.m. today at the Kingdom Hall on Smith Road off Lone Tree Way, and it will continue after the dedication ceremonies.

More than 250 volunteers worked to construct the the hall during the past two years.

happenings

Creative Christian Communication will be the topic of a seminar led by Florence Littauer Tuesday through Thursday at the Evangelical Center.

Frank Barnes

Barnes elected

OAKLAND — Frank Barnes is the newly elected president of the Diocese of Oakland's permanent deacon community.

A permanent deacon at Christ the King parish in Pleasant Hill, he was in the first permanent diaconate class in the diocese and has just celebrated his fifth ordination anniversary.

Barnes lives in Concord and is a director of a corporate accounting service.

Religious Science moves

ALAMO — First Church of Religious Science of Contra Costa has relocated their church to the Lafayette Veterans Hall, 3491 Mt. Diablo Blvd.

The topic for the first Sunday's lesson in the new location which begins at 11 a.m., will be "The Opportunity for Growth." Junior church and youth groups also convene at that time.

will begin at 7:30 p.m. Sunday at the Santa Maria Parish, Santa Maria Way, Orinda. Upcoming events including the mystery trip will be discussed. For more information,

The U.S. Committee In Solidarity with the People of El Salvador (CISPES) is sponsoring the event.

The cost is $3; all proceeds toward the CISPES Medical Campaign.

□ □ □

Rosey Grier at Walnut

WALNUT CREEK — will be the special guest Walnut Creek Presby week-long conference A church, 1720 Oakland B

"Open Doors to the the conference theme, two dozen missionaries a dozen countries in Af East, Asia, Latin Am will speak.

Grier, a former pro will speak about his Af

Other programs for an "Orient Extraordin

Abortion R

ALAMO — The Re for Abortion Rights will from 10 a.m.-2 p.m. A Ramon Valley United 902 Danville Blvd.

The Rev. Dr. Bruce morning presentation c tions past the first trin